THE SALT LAKE HERALD Published Every Day in the Year BY THE HERALD COMPANY

Terms of Subscription.

Subscribers wishing address of paper changed must give former as well as present address.

All papers are continued until explicit order is received to discontinue. All arreatages must be paid in every case. rearages must be paid in every case.

Total Copies of The Herald Printed in September, 1908.

The second second
1	9,885,16		9,715
2	9,736 17		,826
3	0.654 18		5,746
4	9,663 19		9.715
5	9,685 20,	Sunday	18,558
6. Sunday1	8,517 21		9,67
7	9,763 22		. J. J. J.
8	9,760 22		. 3.081
9			. 9.701
10	9.712 25		. 9,000
11			9,791
12		Sunday	18,839
13. Sunday 1	8.025 28		9,734
14	9.703 29		9,636
15			9.81-
Total daily
Average daily			9.77
Total Sunday			74 994
Total Sunday	*	*	15 55
Average Sunda	y		10,00

++++++++++ Largest Daily and Sunday + Circulation in Salt Lake proved by investigation. +++++++++

WEATHER FOR SALT LAKE. Fair.

THE METALS. Silver, 51%c per ounce

Copper (cathodes), 133-16c per pound. Lead, $4.60 per 100 pounds.

ONLY THREE WEEKS MORE.

long they have become so completely ening position. utterly defiant of it.

As the campaign has progressed, it standard-bearer of the party, has been relegated to the rear by the president. the platform issues have been obscured and evaded by him, and an effort made THE FINANCIAL SITUATION. to divert the Democratic attack on real He has not dwelt upon the failure of continues much longer. his method, on the insignificance of the | Lacking support from the general soliciting funds from corporations than what they have been getting from the limelight. The following is taken life and a fee. through Cortelyou, who then had per- the administration.

eral conditions, is debatable ground which has been his main dependence. improve materially. and come to the polls with an inconsidexpect a Democratic victory.

As is well known, Ohio Republicans cents: three months, $2.50; one year, $10.00. in a hostile way. The negro vote will sunday funds for promising undertakings. year, $1.50; six months, 75 cents. 85 Taft to define his own attitude except reasonable rates, and even speculative > Indiana is just as bad from a Repubizations, by all the large German pop- vigor by Mr. Bryan himself. The misin the Republican party hitherto iden- Omaha paper has been made the butt in return for it. tified with the Fairbanks regime. In- of ridicule the country over ever since. diana is unquestionably a doubtful of Democratic success. organization left.

These are only a few of the salient Chicago convention: facts in a curious situation. In Illinois the Republicans have factional quarrels within, and face local probman and Scandinavian vote, which has been staunchly Republican for a number of years. Practically every German newspaper in the country is supporting Bryan, a complete reversal of conditions four and eight and twelve

Moreover, the indefinable trend of public sentiment has been steadily and Three weeks from Tuesday next the definitely toward Bryan from the day presidential election will take place, of his nomination. The threat of a and conclude one of the most interest- panic in case of his election has been ing, yet peculiar campaigns since Lin- tried and found wanting, because the coln's first election. In some ways the Republicans find it most awkward to conditions this year are not unlike discuss panics this year. The old stock se of the years immediately preced- arguments as to his lack of executive ing the war. Then the oligarchy of experience have been tried, but the exthe south had been in power so long, ample of Lincoln and others of the it had become so arbitrary and it had most illustrious Republican presidents so lost touch with the people as a demolished that line of attack. Held whole that its destruction was inevita- to the comparison of platforms and ble if the nation was to continue. Now candidates, the Republicans have been the Republicans, those who really dom- kept on the defensive from the start, inate the party, have been in power so and are still there with a visibly weak-committed to the special interests and Not since 1892, when Cleveland was monopolies which have kept them in elected the second time, has the party power, that they have no conception of been in such good fighting trim or so the real sentiment of the people; or if sanguine of success. In spite of a small they do realize this sentiment they are campaign fund, in spite of the support given the Republicans by the trusts and large moneyed interests, in spitepossibly because of-Roosevelt's aphas developed an extraordinary situa- pearance in the field, the Democrats The Republican candidate, a have gained in confidence and strength man of unquestioned ability to speak as the campaign has progressed, and gruntled Americans in general. for himself, one who is nominally the they have every reason to be gratified with the conditions now existing three weeks before election day.

The financial situation, which has concentrating the fire on been slow to clear up, is further com- ticket go down to ignominious defeat. comparatively unimportant subjects. plicated by the fear of war following The tariff and its correlative evil, the the Bulgarian declaration of indepen- the secretary of the Ananias club, Mr. trusts and monopolies, has been dis- dence and Austria's annexation of Bos- Loeb, has unofficially given it out that cussed gingerly by Mr. Taft, but Mr. nia and Herzegovina. Sales of Ameri- the president would not make speeches Roosevelt has chosen to ignore them can securities in New York on order unless it seemed necessary to save the legal prosecution as evidence that the Republican party is opposed to trusts.

It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk about guin
It is the force of habit—we talk ab except as he has cited his activity in from London reflect this' feeling of day. To go on the stump under the Republican party is opposed to trusts. this country if the selling movement of defeat.

a confession that Taft was in danger established a telephone hour. In this way eas and reckon in guineas and read about her friends are always sure of catching the jingling of guineas without ever ask-punishment secured even when prose- public at home, and weakened by a cution has resulted in conviction. His foreign selling movement, the specular White House. Whether he will break if she is not at home at the telephone bears date 1813; groats and maundles were most strenuous attack has been an at- tive market in Wall street is almost in out, time alone can tell. tempt to show that the Standard Oil, a state of coma. Even the presidenthe typical monopoly, is opposed to the tial campaign, which is usually an ex. PARKER TOLD THE TRUTH. Republican party and is giving aid and cuse for argument, affords no particalar cause for elation or depression; if claims to be the only Republican pa-Judge Parker's reply to this at Bal- it were not for the president's occa- per in the Windy City, even though it timere stopped that line of argument, sional outbreaks, the political battle has bolted the party candidate for Nor did he fail to remember the fact might be expected to have felt deep rabid Republican organs are making to the sonal supervision of the corporation In view of the possible foreign mudbureau, Roosevelt then denied the dle, it is fortunate for the country that Republican national committee received charge and abused Parker with bitter its financial position is strong so far, from the Standard Oil company-and did billingsgate. It was not expected then as actual cash reserves are involved. 1904 that the insurance hearings and the The movement of crops is strong at campaign fund got $100.000 from the Stan-Harriman correspondence would prove good prices, furnishing as always the dard Oil company, as in 1896 it got $50.000 that the insurance hearings and the The movement of crops is strong at | every word of Judge Parker's charge real foundation of whatever strength from the New York Life Insurance company, and in 1904 $260,000 from E. H. Hartrue, convicting Roosevelt of a duthe nation has in international fintrue, convicting Roosevelt of a duthe nation has in international finThe Rock Island system has finThe only questionable feature of these bars him from credence in a political statement.

transactions is that in 1904 the country was given Mr. Roosevelt's word of honor that his campaign fund had not received and, imagining him to be the army baker.

transactions is that in 1904 the country was given Mr. Roosevelt's word of honor that his campaign fund had not received and, imagining him to be the army baker. statement.

* * *

Troad, an indication of safety for a great system whose demoralization whose demoralization and the involved others. The best delection is apathetic in the east where the Republicans have heretofore been as the Republicans have heretofore been as the resident.

* * *

Toad, an indication of safety for a great system whose demoralization whose demoralization of a baker, replied: "So you are the miserable son to some quiet to have you by yourself in some quiet to have you be closely watched. He meant that the cordite, not the stick, needed election is apathetic in the east where of the railroads, and this includes a very large majority of the country's the president of the United States over three kingdoms. I'd make dough of appeal. The new coinage, apparently, over three kingdoms. I'd make dough of appeal. The new coinage, apparently, over three kingdoms. I'd make dough of appeal. The new coinage, apparently, over three kingdoms. I'd make dough of appeal. The new coinage, apparently, over three kingdoms. I'd make dough of appeal. The new coinage, apparently, over three kingdoms. I'd make dough of appeal. The new coinage, apparently, over three kingdoms. I'd make dough of appeal the president of the United States over three kingdoms. I'd make dough of appeal the new coinage, apparently, over three kingdoms. I'd make dough of appeal the new coinage. strongest, while in the middle west, mileage, are in position to reduce op- pledged his word of honor on a state- you." which is the real fighting ground, Bry-erating expenses and maintenance an has made a, winning fight from the charges to a minimum and so maintain and which he knew was untrue at the opening of the campaign. New York, dividends with only an occasional rewith its local issues complicating gen- duction in the dividend rate. There is it "is Mr. Roosevelt's affair, not the ditions, is debatable ground no prospect of any immediate outlay party's," is not sound. The Republican rant waiters, and the amount he sometimes eats is a puzzle to them. A man in ic victory. Hearst's strength, an un- policy of the administration, which has and act of Theodore Roosevelt so long waiters: known factor, is being exerted in be- discredited new issues for that or any as he remains president of the United half of the Republican ticket, and the other purpose, but the great systems States, and cannot evade or escape got him a piece of pie and a glass of milk, of the king by one Rotyr (Rottier), a contractor who was erecting his new got him a piece of pie and a glass of milk, of the king by one Rotyr (Rottier), a contractor who was erecting his new got him a piece of pie and a glass of milk, of the king by one Rotyr (Rottier), a contractor who was erecting his new got him a piece of pie and a glass of milk, of the king by one Rotyr (Rottier). fact is so well understood that he is are in shape to stand the stress vell such responsibility. likely to lose all of the labor vote, until the election is over and conditions territory affected. Jobbing and retail the day of reckoning is at hand. business continues on a satisfactory are badly divided. Senator Foraker and scale, the cities witness an extraordihis friends are not likely to forget the nary amount of new building, money president's letters or the refusal of for legitimate business is plentiful at

TWO OF A KIND.

One of the diverting incidents of the ican standpoint. The Fairbanks crowd campaign was the ludicrous attempt of s off the reservation and the Indianap- the Omaha Bee to make it appear that olis News, the most powerful news- the tariff plank, or a section of it, of paper in the state, is embarrassingly the Republican platform was part of a frank in its publication of matter in- speech by Mr. Bryan. The manner in Now comes the information that the state, with the chances much in favor Portland Oregonian, rock-ribbed Reprint the little joker adopted by the ing the Hearst party.

In all tafiff legislation the true principle is best maintained by the imposition of such duties as will equal the difference fit to American industries.

The Democracy distinctly disclaims any such views, but acquiesces in all that the Bee and Oregonian said. For once in their lives the editors were and should be given credit. Indeed, tian. they may be inclined to follow the example of the apostate Democrat in Sevier county, this state. When the fellow was beaten in the Republican convention for the nomination for sheriff. he exclaimed: "Good; now I can vote my honest convictions."

IS AN ERUPTION IMMINENT?

The final stages of the presidential campaign may or may not find the president on the stump. If he follows his natural inclinations, he will insist navigator? upon batting for his substitute in the final inning. While the old-line Republicans who are supporting Taft are holding Roosevelt in check, the hero worshippers are gathering around the throne and pleading with his majesty to enter the lists with the big stick and bass drum on the ground that the defeat of Taft would mean the repudiation of the Roosevelt administration. that Taft is in danger of being beaten, and that the war whoop held in reserve for the jungles of Africa should Democrats and the grand army of dis-

On the other hand, the trusts now supporting Taft would not regard his election as an endorsement of "my polwould prefer to see the Republican mean before and then said:

A third consideration is the fact that

The only certainty seems to be that

The Chicago Inter Ocean, which from the Inter Ocean of recent date: Judge Parker let out a whoop at Baltinot return-in the Roosevelt campaign of As a matter of fact, the Republican ment afterwards proven to be untrue. time he made it. The conclusion that Chanler which lead the discerning to the wealth-producing capacity of the boodle won in 1904, 1900 and 1896, but

Governor Hughes insists that the crooks of New York be asked whom they are against for governor of the Empire state. Beginning at the top, Platt and Depew, if interrogated, would answer that they were against Chanler. There are crooks and crooks, the majority of them being Republicans, owing to the fact that that party is in power. Governor Hughes has developed into a hypocrite of the first magnitude since going upon the stump.

The relict of Russell Sage, Wall street gambler and the prize skinflint milk or cream imical to the Republicans. Watson, the which the Bee scored the offending of the last century, has subscribed candidate for governor, has been the quotation was very much to the point, $1,000 to the Republican campaign fund. subject of attack by the labor organ- and could not have been excelled in If the old man himself ever put up a cool thousand for political purposes he Kistnah, in India. ulation of the state and by forces with- take was at once exposed, and the knew where he was going to get $2,009

The Democratic party got rid of Senator McLaurin, for cause, some time publican organ of Oregon in particu- ago. In the last days of his official Minnesota, with Johnson leading the lar, and the Pacific coast in general, career he hobnobbed with the occupant state ticket, is good fighting ground; made the same foolish break before the of the White House and controlled the Wisconsin, in the language of the Chi- Bee showed its ignorance. Lest other federal patronage in South Carolina. cago Inter Ocean, has no Republican Republican editors make themselves He hasn't been a Democrat since. He cluding man, loses two-fifths of its subridiculous, The Herald will once more might have avoided exposure by join-

President Roosevelt isn't the only man in the world cursed with a fool the British admiralty plans to cool all for a son-in-law. But that fact probduarrels within, and face local prob-between the cost of production at home for a son-in-law. But that fact prob-lems that involve the loss of the Ger- and abroad, together with reasonable proent time.

> Ideal weather. Any woman who fails to appear in church this morning, if she has a new fall outfit and hat to as homing pigeons. honest in their discussion of the tariff match, is unworthy the name of Chris-

"These temperance folks do crowd us awfully," is an old refrain that has been revived in many parts of the

That wasn't much of a ball game at Detroit yesterday, but the Cubs won it, such as it was.

THE CRUCIAL TEST.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.) you consider your nerve is sufficiently steady to fit you for an airship "Well, I've been out in a canoe with a

A SCHEME.

(Philadelphia Press.) Tommy-Ma, may I play make-b'lieve that I'm entertainin' another little boy? Ma-Certainly, dear. Tommy-All right; gimme some cake for him then. HER LITTLE WORRY.

(Houston Post.) "Your wife has nervous prostration; I cannot, however, tell you what caused it."
"I can," replied the husband; "she heard ne one say the other day that one-half world didn't know how the other half be used to awe and subdue the wicked lived, and she has been worrying about it

SURE DEATH.

(Argonaut.) election as an endorsement of "my policies," but insist that if this question for a square meal he would give her an is made the paramount issue they infallible moth cure. She set a square HISTORY OF GOLDEN GUINEA neal before the tramp, he devoured

"All we need to do, ma'am, is to hang yer moth-filled clothes and carpets and things on a line and beat 'em with a ick. Good-bye to yer moths then."
"Will it kill them?" asked the lady.
"Yes, if ye hit 'em," said the tramp.

HER TELEPHONE HOUR.

her on the wire, and she comes in for ing ourselves why a coin which is no many unexpected good times that other-longer a coin persists in lingual currency, and perhaps the most valuable, is the Roosevelt is fretting and fuming in the wise might be missed. Until she did this not only poetic, but popular, it was almost impossible to get her. Now time she calls up the house and tells her copied in the era of Victoria; why, then, maid where she may be reached. The arrangement works to a ckarm, she says, ten all about the latter and clung to the to the haphazzard fashion of any and no lit may be because the guinea had so

SHOCKED BY A WAITER.

(New York Press.) He called attention to the fact that Mr. Roosevelt was elected by the aid of Standard Oil contributions; and with little apparently as to which candidate Standard On contributions; and with cruel sarcasm he dwelt upon the contribution of $260,000 to the Republican fund by Mr. Harriman at the direct solicitation of Roosevelt himself, as an instance of the president's time, but the name had escaped her. The name had escaped her. What is it?" she asked. None knews, for it was millide, a device to wwas unification of Roosevel her. What the name had escaped her. What the name had escaped her. What is i young woman and exclaimed: rica."

Me and the World Is Mine!" In allusion, probably, to this company's that at the close of the last campaign when he, Judge Parker, accused the Republican national committee of where anything would suit them better that at the close of the last campaign concern over the outcome of the electron over the outcome of the present occupant of the white House when some of his shady transactions are brought into

THOUGHT KING A CULPRIT.

(New York Herald.) ervice paper relates a good story of 1668 Sir Robert Holmes captured in Schell-King Louis of Bavaria. His majesty was ing bay 160 Dutch sail containing bullion much annoyed on one occasion when the and gold dust from Cape Coast castle, in soldier on guard at the palace gates neglected to present arms. The truth was the soldier did not know his majesty by sight.

and gold dust from Cape to the booty found its Guinea, and that this booty found its way into the mint. The exploit is celebrated in Dryden's "Annus Mirabilis."

place. I'd spread your ungainly anatomy Crown.'

SENATOR CRANE LIKES PIE. (Boston Herald.)

Senator Crane's favorite luncheon is pie and milk, according to the Senate restausuch responsibility.

William Howard Taft is running for president on the ground that he is a second Roosevelt, at least that is his stock in trade in the west. Accepting the following such as the second Roosevelt and the west of the king by one Rotyr (Rottier), a sah." replied the waiter.

"What's dat?" inquired another waiter, into provide an hour ago. Jus' got a piece of pie and a glass of milk, that dired with us also."

The guinea, moreover, or rather the element of the waiter, inquired another waiter, inquired

NEWEST NOTES OF SCIENCE

of wire in its strings. By steeping corks in petroleum they are rendered impervious to acids or chemical The United States produced antimony worth $622,046 in 1907, and imported $1,686,-

The average hen will lay 400 eggs in her lifetime, nearly half of them in her third

A single manufacturing company pro-duced and sold over 75,000 electric flatrons last year. Shoes can be well preserved and kept in Germany rewards every locomotive engineer who runs his engine for ten years without an accident.

The longest span of telegraph wire in the world is 600 feet, across the river

A 2,000-acre farm near Idaho Falls, Ida., owned by Thomas W. Lee, is operated entirely by electricity.
It has been estimated that the eyelids of the average man open and close no less than 4,000,000 times each year.

Experiments with new machinery on the Chilean nitrate fields are expected to cut the cost of production in half. A patent has been granted on a go-cart, wheels of which are interchangeable for runners for use on snow or ice. A patent has been granted on a hammer handle, recessed to carry a nail punch and with a clamp on the end to prevent its loss.

A stronomers of note are incided to the theory that the eighth satellite of Jupiter, discovered last winter, is the missing Lexell comet, last seen in 1779, close to the planet.

apparatus.

The longest clock pendulum in the world is at St. Chad's, Shrewsbury, England. It is twenty-two feet in length and the ball weighs 200 pounds.

German military experts are experimenting with falcons as dispatch between the same for Italy, 900,000 for Germany.

Red extensively used in several scenarios of Europe, where wood is scarce.

According to a French expert, in the water courses of Europe there are 500,000 horsepower available for France, the same for Italy, 900,000 for Germany.

menting with falcons as dispatch bearers.

They are said to be four times as fast is best for tempering metal. It also is as noming pigeons.

A patent has been granted on a syringe-like machine injecting poisons around the roots of weeds without injuring surrounding vegetation.

Government

Government scientists who have been measuring them say raindrops vary in size from the merest speck of water to two inches in diameter.

The Automobile club of France has offered a variety of the completion of a keyboard similar to that of a typewriter.

fered a prize of $9,000 for a new fuel. In a test of the explosive power of which must be cheaper than gasoline and various forms of dust when mixed with which must be cheaper than gasoline and give as good results.

Genuine ruby glass owes its color to the presence of particles of gold too small to be seen without the aid of the strongest microscope.

Under exceptionally good conditions of admiralty will construct a line explosive power of the explosive power of dust when mixed with air, it has been learned that the explosive of two ounces of flour in two cubic feet of air will raise two men standing on the testing machine several feet.

At a cost of nearly $5,000,000, the British

Under exceptionally good conditions of weather and clouds, vessels of the navy have exchanged searchlight signals at a distance of sixty-five miles.

To take pickles from jars without munch the pickles from jars without mines at night.

At a cost of nearly $5,000,000, the British and a cost of nearly $5,000,000, the British and the graph of the pickles of huge concrete blocks at Spithead to force yessels to use a defined channel Naval maneuvers have shown that it is possible for small craft to creep up to the shore turing them, as is always done with a at night. metal fork, wooden tongs with cross-grooved ends have been invented.

An invegor An investigation by the state geologist of New York found much more important grooved ends have been invented.

At the national electrical show to be held at New York next month the semicentennial of the laying of the first Atlantic cable will be celebrated.

The pig iron production of the United States in 1907 amounted to 25.781.361 long tons, as compared with 25.307.191 tons in 1906 and 22.992.380 in 1905.

Following a practical demonstration of Following a practical demonstration of the two and putting them through the organisation.

Following a practical demonstration of the two and putting them through the orts value in that field, the government will dinary rolls used in steel mills. He has concrete buildings in which to store drawn the rods thus formed down to wir explosives in the canal zone. A noted French aeronaut has formed a company with $100,000 to be ready to meet company with $100,000 to be ready to meet than any living animal, a few specitive demand which he says is coming for dirigible balloons for pleasure.

more than any living animal, a few specimens of the solendon, an insectiverous animal, have been seen on the island of dirigible balloons for pleasure. A thirteen-ton gasoline weed burner in use by the Union Pacific railway does the work of 300 men in keeping the track clear of objectionable vegetable matter. There are so few flies in England that there is a regular business in importing discovered the way to kill the micro-organisms which sour new wine and an effor poultry and captive birds and fish.

for poultry and captive birds and fish.

for poultry and captive birds and fish.

which kill silkworms before they spin their cocoons. There are so few flies in England that drophobia which he discovered, he also there is a regular business in importing discovered the way to kill the micro-or-

Was Minted in 1813.

hurt that honor feels." It is doubtful if

It was in the reign of Charles II.-to of gold and silver to be coined.

"Now it was." wrote Evelyn on March dined with us today (March 9, 1663) Mr.

Slipgsby, of the mint, who showed us all the new pieces, both of gold and silver, that were made for the king, by Blondeau's way; and compared them with those made for Oliver. The pictures of established," and Pepys tells how down their money and sell it in ometimes kings, notably Henry VIII., de based the coinage, and, until milling deuntil 1816, and ocasionally the go guinea was subject to the silver coin.

as fine as No. 40.

Resembling certain fossil quadrupeds eral years. It had been supposed that the

Although the name of Pasteur generall is associated with the treatment of hy

A Coin That Few Ever See-Last With poet's license Tennyson tells us 'the jingling of the guinea helps the animal was extinct.

QUEER WALKING STICK. the poet ever heard a guinea jingle, and certainly few of the readers of "Locks-England's War Secretary Carries One of Cordite. King Edward is the possessor of a wonderful collection of walking sticks, The last guinea issued from the mint of the unicorn which appears in the neartst approach extant to the horn royal arms. It is cut from the single horn of a white rhinoceros-a species now extinct, from which the heraldic reason. unicorn is supposed to have originated -and is unique as regards its length long a reign, or because the word itself which is forty-two inches. It was long a reign, or because the word found is "catchy," or because sellers have found readier customers for goods at "one Kaffir chief to Louis Solomon, a South African pioneer, and, enclosed in a case of native bamboo, was presented to but, at the queen's desire, this punish-ment was commuted, and he was transported to Tasmania instead for seven years' penal servitude. He made a fortune after his release, and how and silver monies, and an incouragement the stick should have come into the unto the said company in the importing market is not known, but it appears to On have been either withdrawn before the sale or to have been bought in at it.

some of the coins, too, there is a castle, and the reason for this may be that in The most astonishing stick of recent times is one with which Mr. Haldane. secretary of war, considerably startled the house of commons. The occasion was a discussion concerning cordite, sight.

"Why don't you present arms?" the latter asked angrily. "Don't you know to whom you are indebted for your daily bread?"

The sentry of the latter and latter and latter and latter and latter asked angrily. "Don't you know to whom you are indebted for your daily bread?"

The sentry of the latter and l habit of bringing to the house and leaving in the cloakroom. There was watching; but with the knowledge thus given to the house, members are unlikely to meddle with the walking stick 1664, "that the fine new milled coin, of the war secretary. both of white money and guineas, was Another extraordinary walking stick was also associated with a member of the house of commons who was building for himself a mansion in a remote country district. Several times during his visits of inspection he chanced to notice at the railway station a sub 'Yes, sah; de senator jus' gone out. I the latter made by Symons (Simon), and stantial walking stick addressed to the clerk one day, he asked him why his employer should send his stick backwards and forwards by rail separate from himself.

Pennsylvania leads in the slate industry, with Vermont, Maine, Virginia, Maryland, New York, California, Arkansas and New Jersey following in the order named.

A San Francisco wharf builder has found that teredoes may be driven from piling or other water timber by passing weak electric currents through the wood

A Pennsylvanian has invented a ma-chine which scrapes, cleans and trims the 200 to 300 a minute, according to size.

One of the largest pieces of concrete work in this country is a fence a mile long by four feet high, extending from the Wabash river to West Terre Haute, tattoo identification marks on horses' gums instead of branding their hides and

Dust in our atmosphere, according scientists, helps to retain the heat of the earth at night, and without it the ground

What is said to be the heaviest chain in the world has been built in England for the Japanese navy. The common huss

Experiments made in compressed air by two English physicians demonstrated that divers can work at least 20 feet under water without danger of death from the Patents have been granted in Germany and the United States for a machine that makes glass telegraph poles, which are being extensively used in several sections

Astronomers of note are inclined to the pounds each, and the end caes would freeze like that of the airless

the Japanese navy.

200 peurds.

perimenting with an electrical machin heads and tails from fish at the Suggestion to Dramatists Based on

"A STAND FOR ART."

Recent Stage History. (New York Evening Sun.)
In Two Acts, to Say Nothing at All of the Ensemble.

Being a Suggestion to Certain Dramatists as Based Upon Certain Stage History Recently Made. "A" stands for Art. Recently Made. "A" stands for Art. When It's All Said and Done, and "B" for Box Office, That Takes in the Mon'. ACT I.

A beach by the ocean. Down stage, waves rolling. Middle stage, breakers roaring. To the left a lighthouse is violently winking its eye. The dawn breaks. (Enter a bevy of sea nymphs dancing on from the wings.) Chorus of Nymphs.

As we think you will remark, Our chapeaux and gloves you miss. But we think (Tra-la!) With a wink (Tra-la! That we look quite nice like this: (Dance)

First Nymph. And as for shoes and strocking-Second Nymph. Don't you think it's rather shocking?

Third Nymph. And as for stylish dresses-Fourth Nymph.

we our pretty tresses?
(Nymphs face down stage, turning toward the sea.)

Hail Hall! Queen of the ocean! See our devotion! Rise from the spray! Rise from toam!

Comstock's away And Miss Salome's home! (Shivers of violins held termolo on the high strong. Aphroditt arises slowly from waves and dances forward.)

Sole by Aphrodite. O, once upon a time (It was very long ago) I engaged a mantua maker, But she couldn't, couldn't sew.

> Chorus But she couldn't But she couldn't But she couldn't Couldn't sew!

Aphrodite. She had no idea of style In creation she was lacking, stood her for a while Then I sent her, sent her packing.

> So she sent her-So she sent her— So she sent her— Sent her packing!

Well, she packed her things and left me, For a journey down the Nile. Note Bene: She bereft me, And she left me but my smile.

Chorus. So it's on-on-on to the Nile, For, ah, there are times when we can't even smile! And when we all sigh And look sorry-O, my! So it's on-so it's on to the Nile.

The River Nile. In the distance a temple twinkling with lights. To the right a pyramid. To the left a Sphinx with its face turned off stage. A few paim trees.

Night. An evening in August.
(A dahbeah slowly floats down the Nile until it reaches center of stage. The moon arises eagerly. The Sphinx attempts to turn.) Chorus of Attendants.

Silver oars and a maiden shy Flute and pipe-pipe and flute. Don't you think we are awful cute? (Dance)

In a clime like this it is hot to dress, came the rule, clipping was of constant A very hard problem, all confess. practice. Silver was the sole standard We need nothing more than a coat of tan. So you see we are doing the best we can First Attendant.) A stands for Art when it's all said and done-

Second Attendant.

B for Box Office, that takes in the mon Third Attendant. C stands for Cash and for Casting Off Clothes-

Fourth Attendant. D stands for Dollars and everything goes. (The curtain before the door in the dahabeah cabin is slowly parted. Attendants face the cabin. Salaam.)

Chorus. Rah! Likewise Ho-rum! Rah! Isis and Tum!

Come, Queen of Egypt, a star is thy glance! On-on-on with the dance! (Cleopatra trips forward

The moon pushes a cloud back. With a violent effort the Sphinx turns around.) Solo by Cleopatra. There was a time-and as for me I'm glad it's past and gone— When everyone arose to ask, "O, what did she have on? the stage is elevated. (Everybody cough!) And now the question that they ask is:
"What did she have off?"

Chorus. O, what did she have off? O, what did she have off? And now the question that they ask is:
"What did she have off?"

Cleopatra. In days of old an actress very often tore her hair, And cried aloud unto the crowd, "I wonder what I'll wear!" then her costumes worried her, but nowadays they don't. She doesn't thing of what she'll wear; She wonders what she won't!

Chorus. O, nowadays they don't-O, nowadays they don't-She doesn't care for what she'll wear, She wonders what she won't! (Enter Aphrodite and nymphs, dancing and waving their arms.) GRAND ENSEMBLE.

Solo by Aphrodite. Before we dressed Chorus: (Before we dressed) As we are now (As we are now) There often was (There often was)

An awful row (An awful row). don't you see, the ruling style Would only last a little while, And every one was nervous lest They might not look as did the rest.

But now, Ha-ha! (But now, Ha-ha!) Since Sally came (Sal-o-me came) As you can see (Tee-hee! Tee-hee!) We're just the same! (We're just the same!)

Cleopatra Welcome to our dahabeah. Pray excuse me while I send Tuneful notes of invitation To a waiting friend—

(A suburban train puffs in the distance. Heavy steps draw near. Drums rumble. Discords. Anthony Comstock rushes forward amid tumultuous applause from the audience. Quick curtain.)